

Nurse's Rights and Responsibilities

Prepared by
Dr. Bardes Shaban

A. Nurses have the Right to:

- Protect the dignity and autonomy of nurses in the workplace.
- Practice in an environment that allow them to act in accordance with professional standards and legally authorized scopes of practice.

A. Nurses have the Right to:

- Work in an environment that supports and facilitates ethical practice, in accordance with the code of ethics for nurses
- Work in a safe environment for themselves and their patients.

A. Nurses have the Right to:

- Not to be abused in any form by physicians, pharmacists, administrators or nursing directors. Any abuse that occurs should be dealt with in a professional and in partial manner
- Refuse any assignment that they feel unsafe.

Safe Staff = Safe Patients

Nurses' Responsibilities

- Provide information, about past illnesses, hospitalization, medication.
- Participate effectively in decision making.
- Inform their physician and other health care givers if anticipate problem in following prescribed treatment.
- Provide necessary information regard health insurance claim to make payment arrangement.

- Protect rights and safety of the patients.
- Ensure treatment and procedures are completed.
- Complete and distribute a nursing discharge summary.
- Provide education, counselling and group work services.
- Orient the client to the ward environment and daily routine.

- Using the nursing process to deliver comprehensive care for patient.
- Provide direction and supervision to less experienced registered nurse.
- Ensure that patients are aware, understand and is involved in their treatment plan.
- Maintain communication that facilitates nursing team work.

- Alleviate the suffering experienced by individuals, families, groups and communities.
- Outline the relevant details of patient, summarize the decisions and document the nursing care plan as soon as possible after round

Thank you