

Questions bank (communication, lecture four)

1. Cues in communication refer to:

- A. Written instructions
- B. Hints through words or body language
- C. Medical records
- D. Prescriptions

Answer: B

2. Non-verbal cues include:

- A. Emails
- B. Tone and gestures
- C. Reports
- D. Text messages

Answer: B

3. Open-ended questions are best used:

- A. At the start of conversation
- B. To end discussion
- C. To give advice
- D. To criticize

Answer: A

4. “How are you since I last saw you?” is a:

- A. Closed question
- B. Directive statement
- C. Open directive question
- D. Leading question

Answer: C

5. “What do you mean by that?” is used to:

- A. Judge
- B. Clarify
- C. Argue
- D. Ignore

Answer: B

6. “What makes you think that?” is used to:

- A. Criticize
- B. Justify
- C. Clarify feelings
- D. Close discussion

Answer: B

7. “You definitely took 3 tablets/day?” is checking:

- A. Emotion
- B. Accuracy
- C. Opinion
- D. Judgment

Answer: B

8. The healthcare professional should avoid:

- A. Listening
- B. Asking open questions
- C. Talking more than the client
- D. Clarifying

Answer: C

9. Psychological focus involves asking about:

- A. Salary
- B. Feelings
- C. Weather
- D. Politics

Answer: B

10. Recognizing emotions helps to:

- A. Ignore concerns
- B. Build rapport
- C. Change topic
- D. Give lecture

Answer: B

11. Silence in communication:

- A. Ends discussion
- B. Makes client uncomfortable always
- C. Gives time to think
- D. Shows anger

Answer: C

12. Minimal prompts include:

- A. Long explanations
- B. Interruptions
- C. Nodding and saying “go on”
- D. Advice giving

Answer: C

13. Screening question example:

- A. Why are you late?
- B. Is there something else?
- C. Take medicine
- D. Stop talking

Answer: B

14. Clarifying means:

- A. Changing subject
- B. Paraphrasing for understanding
- C. Ignoring
- D. Judging

Answer: B

15. Negotiating in communication includes:

- A. Forcing decision
- B. Asking permission
- C. Ignoring feelings
- D. Giving orders

Answer: B

16. “Would it be okay to talk about what is worrying you?” shows:

- A. Judgment
- B. Negotiation
- C. Criticism
- D. Silence

Answer: B

17. Probing questions are used to:

- A. Confuse
- B. Explore deeper
- C. End talk
- D. Avoid topic

Answer: B

18. Confusing questions should be:

- A. Encouraged
- B. Avoided
- C. Repeated
- D. Ignored

Answer: B

19. Ignoring client questions leads to:

- A. Trust building
- B. Misunderstanding
- C. Rapport
- D. Comfort

Answer: B

20. Open questions usually begin with:

- A. Is/Are
- B. Do/Did
- C. How/What
- D. Can

Answer: C

21. Closed questions usually require:

- A. Long answers
- B. Yes/No answers
- C. Explanation
- D. Stories

Answer: B

22. Client appreciation increases when professionals:

- A. Avoid feelings
- B. Ask about emotions
- C. Rush discussion
- D. Lecture

Answer: B

23. Pauses in communication help to:

- A. Speed up talk
- B. Slow pace and reflect
- C. Show anger
- D. Confuse

Answer: B

24. Body language is part of:

- A. Verbal cues
- B. Non-verbal cues
- C. Written cues
- D. Technical cues

Answer: B

25. Keeping focus on client means:

- A. Dominating talk
- B. Patient-centered communication
- C. Interrupting
- D. Giving advice quickly

Answer: B

26. Effective listening requires:

- A. Interrupting
- B. Full attention
- C. Multitasking
- D. Advising immediately

Answer: B

27. Active listening includes:

- A. Looking away
- B. Reflecting statements
- C. Judging
- D. Ignoring cues

Answer: B

28. Nodding during conversation shows:

- A. Boredom
- B. Encouragement
- C. Anger
- D. Disinterest

Answer: B

29. Listening to tone of voice helps identify:

- A. Age
- B. Feelings
- C. Address
- D. Profession

Answer: B

30. Interrupting a client may:

- A. Improve trust
- B. Break rapport
- C. Help expression
- D. Encourage talk

Answer: B

31. Reflective listening means:

- A. Repeating exactly
- B. Paraphrasing meaning
- C. Ignoring
- D. Arguing

Answer: B

32. Empathy means:

- A. Sympathy only
- B. Understanding feelings
- C. Ignoring emotions
- D. Judging

Answer: B

33. Good eye contact shows:

- A. Disinterest
- B. Attention
- C. Disrespect
- D. Anger

Answer: B

34. Barriers to listening include:

- A. Noise
- B. Empathy
- C. Silence
- D. Clarification

Answer: A

35. Minimal encouragers are used to:

- A. Stop talk
- B. Continue sharing
- C. Change topic
- D. Give advice

Answer: B

36. Selective listening means:

- A. Listening fully
- B. Listening partially
- C. Reflecting
- D. Clarifying

Answer: B

37. Listening improves:

- A. Conflict
- B. Misunderstanding
- C. Relationship
- D. Silence

Answer: C

38. Emotional cues are identified through:

- A. Silence only
- B. Facial expressions
- C. Written notes
- D. Reports

Answer: B

39. Good listeners avoid:

- A. Judgment
- B. Attention
- C. Empathy
- D. Clarification

Answer: A

40. Repeating key words helps in:

- A. Confusion
- B. Confirmation
- C. Judgment
- D. Argument

Answer: B

41. Attentive posture shows:

- A. Disinterest
- B. Engagement
- C. Anger
- D. Fear

Answer: B

42. Listening with empathy builds:

- A. Trust
- B. Conflict
- C. Distance
- D. Fear

Answer: A

43. Checking understanding is part of:

- A. Passive listening
- B. Active listening
- C. Ignoring
- D. Advising

Answer: B

44. Effective listening reduces:

- A. Communication
- B. Errors
- C. Empathy
- D. Rapport

Answer: B

45. Listening involves both verbal and:

- A. Technical
- B. Non-verbal understanding
- C. Written
- D. Electronic

Answer: B

46. Information should be given in:

- A. Complex terms
- B. Clear and simple language
- C. Medical jargon only
- D. Long lectures

Answer: B

47. Before giving information, you should:

- A. Interrupt
- B. Assess client's understanding
- C. Ignore feelings
- D. Rush

Answer: B

48. Chunking information means:

- A. Giving everything at once
- B. Giving small amounts at a time
- C. Avoiding explanation
- D. Ignoring questions

Answer: B

49. Checking understanding can be done by:

- A. Teach-back method
- B. Ignoring
- C. Changing topic
- D. Arguing

Answer: A

50. Avoid medical jargon because:

- A. It confuses clients
- B. It is professional
- C. It saves time
- D. It impresses clients

Answer: A

51. Visual aids help in:

- A. Confusion
- B. Better understanding
- C. Argument
- D. Ignoring

Answer: B

52. Giving written instructions helps:

- A. Memory
- B. Confusion
- C. Anger
- D. Conflict

Answer: A

53. Encourage questions to:

- A. Stop communication
- B. Promote clarity
- C. Confuse
- D. Criticize

Answer: B

54. Appropriate tone while giving information should be:

- A. Harsh
- B. Calm
- C. Angry
- D. Loud

Answer: B

55. Summarizing information helps:

- A. Forgetting
- B. Reinforcement
- C. Ignoring
- D. Judgment

Answer: B

56. Ask permission before giving advice to:

- A. Show respect
- B. Force
- C. Ignore
- D. Control

Answer: A

57. Giving too much information at once may cause:

- A. Clarity
- B. Overload
- C. Trust
- D. Comfort

Answer: B

58. Client-centered information is based on:

- A. Professional preference
- B. Client needs
- C. Guessing
- D. Assumption

Answer: B

59. Feedback from client ensures:

- A. Confusion
- B. Understanding
- C. Silence
- D. Judgment

Answer: B

60. Effective information giving improves:

- A. Non-compliance
- B. Health outcomes
- C. Miscommunication
- D. Conflict

Answer: B