

Case Studies in nursing and public health

Case Study 1: Fever

Case:

Mr. Ahmed, 45, has a fever 102°F, chills, sore throat. Pulse 102, BP 130/85.

Questions:

1. What is the pulse?
A. 90 B. 100 C. ☒ 102 D. 110
 2. What is a symptom?
A. Cough B. ☒ Fever C. Rash D. Headache
 3. What should the nurse do?
A. Ignore B. ☒ Give medicine and check vitals C. Give candy D. No water
-

Case Study 2: After Surgery

Case:

Mrs. Sarah, 60, had appendix surgery. Mild pain, BP 120/80, pulse 88.

Questions:

1. How to help pain?
A. Ignore B. Give food C. ☒ Give medicine and make comfortable D. Make patient walk
 2. Which vitals to check?
A. Height and weight B. ☒ BP, pulse, temperature, breathing C. Eyes D. Blood sugar
 3. Advice at home:
A. Lift heavy things B. ☒ Keep wound clean and take medicine C. Skip medicine D. Swim
-

Case Study 3: Dehydration

Case:

A 5-year-old has diarrhea and vomiting for 2 days. Pulse 120, BP 90/60, dry lips.

Questions:

1. Sign of dehydration?
A. Wet lips B. Strong pulse C. ☐ Dry lips D. Normal energy
 2. How long has he been vomiting?
A. One day B. ☐ Two days C. A week D. Five days
 3. How old was the patient?
A. Three years B. ☐ Five years C. Seven years D. Six years
-

Case Study 4: High Blood Pressure

Case:

Mr. Khalid, 55, BP 160/100, headache, dizzy.

Questions:

1. What is high?
A. Pulse B. ☐ Blood pressure C. Temperature D. Breathing
 2. What should the nurse do?
A. Ignore B. ☐ Check BP, give medicine, teach healthy habits C. Run patient D. Give candy
 3. Advice at home?
A. Eat more salt B. ☐ Eat less salt, exercise, do not smoke C. Sleep less D. Skip meals
-

Case Study 5: Low Blood Sugar

Case:

Ms. Randa, 50, diabetic, dizzy, sweating. Blood sugar 55 mg/dL.

Questions:

1. Low blood sugar is called?
A. High blood sugar B. ☐ Low blood sugar (Hypoglycemia) C. High BP D. Low BP
2. What should nurse do first?
A. Give insulin B. ☐ Give sugar or juice C. Ignore D. Make patient walk

3. What is the advice at home?

- A. Skip meal B. ☒ Check sugar, teach diet and medicine C. Avoid water D. Exercise